

BARBARA NESBITT

"Warm, evocative vocals" GEORGE VARGA, SAN DIEGO UNION-TRIBUNE

Multi award-winning, Austin-based Americana singer-songwriter, Barbara Nesbitt, recently released her 5th album, Someday, Maybe Sooner. Subsequently, she released her first single, Red Flames, a love song about the Scottish Highlands. She has been a SXSW official showcasing artist multiple times, has sung background vocals for Willie Nelson and Bob Weir, and can bring the house down whether in an intimate venue or a sold-out arena. Her storytelling and songwriting take you on a journey reflective of her life which will make you laugh, cry, think and feel. She is currently seeking stops for a 2023 European tour.

"With a voice that is clear as a mountain meadow and emotive as Patsy Cline, Barbara Nesbitt sings songs of life's journeys with fire grace and country soul." RAY BENSON, ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL

"Her voice, while sweet and melodic, conveys a confidence and strength drawn from her life's experiences..." THOMAS LIM, CHINA DAILY

"This is simply a girl with a tremendous, angelic voice singing wonderfully crafted songs" CRAIG YERKS, SAN DIEGO TROUBADOUR

BARBARA NESBITT

"Her voice, while sweet and melodic, conveys a confidence and strength drawn from her life's experiences" THOMAS LIM, CHINA DAILY

Barbara Nesbitt, Austin-based Americana singer-songwriter, recently released her 5th album, Someday, Maybe Sooner. Her voice, guitar work and songwriting have earned her Austin Music Awards accolades for top 5 Best Female Singer, top 3 Best Songwriter and top 3 guitar players. Her album, Right As Rain, is in rotation on SiriusXM Radio, and, in July 2022, she released her much awaited single, "Red Flames."

Along with her solo work, she co-founded the breakout band, The Whiskey Sisters (winner of Austin Music Awards Best New Band), to much buzz and acclaim, has sung background vocals for Willie Nelson and Bob Weir and has been a SXSW Official Showcasing Artist multiple times. She is also co-founder of the all-female fronted band Sister Golden Hair, a cover band aimed at corporate and private events celebrating the harmony-rich songs of the 60s and 70s.

Barbara has shared the stage and opened for artists such as Bonnie Raitt, Lyle Lovett, Robert Earl Keen, Lisa Loeb, Hootie & the Blowfish, Steve Earle, Meredith Brooks, Nickel Creek, Jerry Garcia Band, Keller Williams, Widespread Panic, and more.

Barbara Nesbitt is an Americana gem with a voice that is at once plaintive and strong, warm and clear. She's lived her life on the road collecting triumphs and heartaches in every corner of the globe, crafting intimate, powerful songs that take you on a journey reflective of her life which will make you laugh, cry, think and feel. Her shows are geared toward storytelling and songwriting and also full of songs everybody knows and loves. Whether solo or with a band, you're guaranteed a night full of smiles.
